CONSTITUTION AND RULES OF THE ULSTER FARMERS' UNION

Title

1. The organisation shall be called the Ulster Farmers' Union (the Union).

Objects

2. Mission Statement.

2.1. To serve its members by promoting and supporting a vibrant and sustainable rural economy where agriculture is secure and pivotal to its future.

3. Objectives

3.1. To defend the rights and promote the interests of its members.

3.2. To seek to secure the economic sustainability and quality of life for farm families.

3.3. To encourage environmentally sustainable welfare friendly market orientated farming practices.

3.4. To improve the wider social infrastructures within the rural economy.

Membership

4. Membership shall be designated in five categories, Full Farming and Growing, Student, Honorary Life, Rural Dweller and Corporate.

4.1. Full Farming and Growing shall be open to:

4.1.1. Persons who are actively engaged in farming and have capital employed in a farm business.

4.1.2. Each Full Farming and Growing family membership engaged in farming, may nominate up to two representatives for voting purposes.

4.1.3. Persons formerly qualified under Rule 4.1.1 who are now retired.

4.2. Student membership shall be open to:

4.2.1. Any individual who is currently studying an agricultural related course at a recognised academic institution. Student members will have no voting rights.

4.3. Honorary Life membership shall be conferred by Council at an Annual General Meeting on any full member for distinguished service to the Union, on the recommendation of a County Committee endorsed by the Executive.

4.4. Rural Dweller membership shall be open to:

4.4.1. Any person not engaged in active farming but has a vested interest in the work of the UFU. Rural Dweller members will have no voting rights.

4.5 Corporate membership shall be open to:

4.5.1. Any organisation/business that has a vested interest in the work of the UFU. Corporate members will have no voting rights.

Membership subscriptions

5. The annual subscription shall be due on 1 January each year, at such a rate as is determined by the Executive Committee.
6. Members whose subscriptions are not paid by 31 December in the year due shall be considered to have cancelled their membership.

Conditions of Membership

7. Voting rights and membership of Union Council or Committees shall be restricted to full members paid up in the current or preceding calendar year.
8. A member who transgresses the rules of the Union shall be liable to suspension or expulsion by the organisation, as determined by the Ethics and Standards Committee. The member shall have the right of appeal to the Executive. Such suspended or expelled member shall have no claim on the funds of the Union.
 - 8.1. The Union shall operate in accordance with its Code of Conduct, which sets out the expected standards of behaviour for members, and its Standing Orders, which prescribe the procedures for conducting meetings.
 - 8.2. The Ethics and Standards Committee shall be responsible for overseeing compliance with the Union's Code of Conduct and Standing Orders. All members are expected to adhere to these requirements, and failure to do so may result in sanctions as determined by the Committee.

Constitution

9. The Union shall be organised into Groups, County Committees, Policy Committees, an Executive Committee and a Council. A Management Board shall oversee the day-to-day work of the Union.
10. Union members shall be allocated to a Group (and may be allocated to a Branch within a Group where Branches exist).
11. Representatives appointed by Groups within a County shall constitute a County Committee.
12. The policy-making and administration body shall be the Executive Committee.

UFU Groups

13. A UFU Group shall consist of the fully paid Union members, Student members and Honorary Life members affiliated to it.
14. The UFU Group shall be administered by a Group Committee serviced by one or more Group Managers, one of whom shall be Group Publicity Officer.
15. The UFU Group Committee shall be appointed at an Annual or Biennial General Meeting, held in February, and shall consist of the Chairman, Vice-Chairman, Sectoral, Central and Specialist Policy Committee representatives and up to five additional members.
16. The Group Committee shall have responsibility for supervising the work and the performance of its Group Managers, and shall, through its representatives on the Executive, report on any matters pertaining thereto.
17. The UFU Group Committee shall have the power to enquire into, advise on, or resolve any matters affecting the interests of members of the Group, subject only to confirmation with Union policy.
18. The Group shall appoint at an Annual or Biennial General meeting one representative to each Sectoral, Central and Specialist Policy Committee referred to in Rule 31 where there is sufficient local interest in the work of that Committee. Four additional members shall be appointed to serve with each Sectoral, Central and Specialist Policy Committee representative as a local Committee with the exception of the Animal Health, Environmental and Legislation Policy Groups. The Group shall appoint additional members to the Executive as set out in rule 38.2.4.

19. Each Group shall appoint delegates to Council on the basis of one per 50 (or part thereof) in addition to its Chairman, Vice-Chairman and its Sectoral, Central and Specialist Policy Committee Representatives.
20. Each Group shall organise six events each year for members, a minimum of three of which must be open business meetings for members.
21. The Group shall maintain accurate accounts of income and expenditure in such form as determined by the Executive from time to time. Proper accounts shall be presented annually to the Group.
22. Branches can be constituted within Groups.
 - 22.1. Any Group of members qualified under Rule 4.1. may seek to form a Branch within a Group, so long as the number of members of such a Branch does not fall below 25.
 - 22.2. Any proposal to form a new Branch must be ratified by the Executive, and fulfilment of Rule 4.1. will not confer an implied right to establishment of a Branch.
 - 22.3. All subscription income raised from Branch members shall be held in the Group account. Any other funds raised by Branches shall be credited to those Branches.
 - 22.4. Each Branch shall hold an Annual General Meeting in January at which it shall elect a Chairman, Vice-Chairman, Treasurer and Secretary.

County Committees

23. The Role of the County Committees is outlined in the Schedule of Delegated Authority.
24. The County Committee shall consist of the following:

47. At least seven working days notice shall normally be given of the place, date and time of the Council meetings.
48. 50 members of Council shall form a quorum.
49. All questions shall be resolved by a simple majority of those present, eligible and voting.

Collective Responsibility

50. All present members of Committees will be bound by decisions of those Committees. Their dissent can however be recorded in the Minutes. Where a Committee member transgresses this rule, the Committee shall in the first instance ask the member to resign from that Committee but in the event that the member does not resign, the Committee can decide to suspend or remove this member from that Committee. The member shall have the right of appeal to the Executive.

Elections

51. Rules governing the election of members will apply to all elected positions within the organisation.
- 51.1. All voting shall be on the basis of one vote per member and shall be conducted by secret ballot.
- 51.2. No voting by proxy is permitted.
- 51.3. All questions shall be resolved by a simple majority of those present, eligible and voting.
- 51.4. The consent of a nominee should be obtained prior to their nomination. Where this is not the case any appointment can only be ratified by the appointee's subsequent confirmation of consent.
- 51.5. Nominations shall be made secretly unless it is the unanimous decision of those present at the meeting to have open nominations
- 51.6. The attendance records of the following members must be made public at the time of the subsequent elections: Members of the Executive Committee, Members of Sectoral, Central and Specialist Policy Committees, Members of the Board.
- 51.7. For the election of Deputy Presidents, a system of elimination of the lowest candidate shall operate when necessary. Council members will be asked to vote for two candidates in round one of voting. To be deemed elected a candidate must obtain over 50 % of the registered voters. If no candidate achieves over 50%, in the first round, the lowest candidate is eliminated and the second voting round still has two votes. If one candidate achieves over 50% they are deemed elected and the lowest candidate is eliminated, before moving to a second round with only one vote for the remaining candidates. This would be repeated until a second candidate achieves over 50% of registered voters.

51.8. In the event of a tie, re-voting shall be carried out for the tied candidates all other candidates having been either deemed elected or eliminated. Should a tie remain a re-vote shall be carried out following whatsoever additional input from the candidates the Chairman shall deem appropriate. Should a tie still remain a determination shall be made by using the Chairman's casting vote or drawing lots.

51.8.1. In the event of a tie in the election of the Union's Office Bearers re-voting shall be carried out for the tied candidates all other candidates having been either deemed elected or eliminated. Should a tie remain a re-vote shall be carried out following whatsoever additional input from the candidates the Chairman shall deem appropriate. Should a tie still remain the decision shall be deferred to an EGM for the sole purpose of resolving the tied election. Subsequent to a vote at the EGM should a tie still remain a determination shall be made by using the Chairman's casting vote or drawing lots.

51.9. It is recommended that each UFU Group Committee and County Committee should meet prior to their Annual General Meeting to prepare a list of nominations to be submitted at their Annual General Meeting. Further names may be added to any list of nominations before voting takes place.

Accounts

- 52. Proper audited accounts for the Union's Headquarters organisation shall be prepared annually for the year ending on 31st December. The report and accounts shall be presented at the next following Annual General Meeting.
- 53. Surplus funds of the Union may be invested by the Board having considered the advice available to it.
- 54. The Funds and Property of the Union shall be held in Trust for the Union by either, a sole Trustee which is a Banking Company, or two individual trustees who shall be Partners in a firm of Solicitors practising in Northern Ireland, and in either case Trustee or Trustees shall be selected by the UFU Executive Committee.

Notices Convening Meetings

- 55. The service of notice for meetings shall be conducted in accordance with the Union's Standing Orders.

Alteration Of Constitution and Rules

- 56. Any proposal to alter, repeal or add to the existing Constitution and Rules shall be made in the form of a special resolution at the Annual General Meeting of Council, or at an Extraordinary Meeting of Council specially convened for discussion of the resolution. A two-thirds majority shall be required to approve a special resolution.

56.1. The Board shall initiate a comprehensive review of the Constitution and Rules at least once every five years. This review shall be submitted to the Executive Committee for consideration and must be completed in advance of the Annual General Meeting of Council. The review process shall take into account any changes in the organisational structure of the Union to ensure continued relevance and effective governance.

- 57. Notice of motion of a special resolution shall be given in writing to the Chief Executive not less than 21 days prior to the date of the meeting at which the resolution is to be discussed, and must be signed by at least 15 members of the Executive Committee.

Approved by Council on 30 April 2025
